Fall Celebration: Farewell to the Farm

Dear Nancy,

Patuxent Riverkeeper is moving its office to a new location and the old one is being converted into a sustainable farming enterprise. Help us celebrate with an environmental film (to be shown at an indoor venue at the Fairhaven School at 6:00pm) followed by a pot luck dinner at the farm, celebratory bonfire and drum circle under stars.

Come party under the stars on one of our county's few remaining working farms with four non-profit groups that stand together for change, community and sustainability: Patuxent Riverkeeper, Prince George's Sierra Club, Eco-City Farms and Fairhaven School.

November 5th, 5:30 pm - midnight
18600 Queen Anne Road; Upper Marlboro, MD

Pre-Party Meeting: It can never be all play and no work: Sierra Club is having a general membership meeting at 3:30 pm before the evening party.

Film at Fairhaven: The film du jour is "Pig Business" a documentary the business practices of global agri-business in Europe (and here) that destroy local agriculture, while polluting the air and water. The movie will start at 6:00.

Wine and Dine: After the movie we will head back to the farm (appr. 7:00) where we will be grilling all natural sausage. Bring a dish to share along with your plate, utensils, your favorite beverage and a folding chair.

Tunes: Bring a musical instrument if you want to jam with the group.

Kayak Auction: Riverkeeper will be auction off some of our used kayaks at this event - visit our website after November 1st for more details on the boats (and to place a bid).

Sincerely,
Fred & Lauren
